About the Celtic Music Directory

The Celtic Music Directory is a work-in-progress. In 2000, I started the Great Celtic CD Giveaway to promote my band, the Brobdingnagian Bards. I gave away dozens of prizes and then continued the giveaway with a free CD every month.

A few months later, I started up the Celtic MP3s.com Song of the Week ezine and started giving away a free CD in that newsletter too. But the main thing the Celtic Muse allowed me to do is meet more Celtic bands. So I decided as long as I am meeting all these bands and I'm finding lots of Celtic music-lovers through my ezine, why not bring the two together? So that's what I've done.

The goal of this directory is to help Celtic music lovers find Celtic musicians in their area. I put it together in this eBook for easy distribution by artists and websites. It's something I encourage everyone to share with his or her friends.

Right now, the directory is small. But with your help, we can get it out to more and more people. I plan to update the directory quarterly until it is up to a decent size. So drop by CelticMP3s.com so you can download the latest copy to giveaway.

That's right, I said give it away. You are more than welcome to give it away from your website. As long as you do not charge for it, you are free to distribute it freely!

One Final Note: If you do decide to give this eBook away to your fans, customers, visitors, please drop me an email so that I can tell you when the latest update is available. Or, you can link directly to it at <http://www.celticmp3s.com/CelticMusicDirectory.pdf>. Thanks a million for your help and your interest in Celtic music. Slainte'!
